NARRATIVE:

Gonzalez has an extensive adult criminal history that began at the age of 18. She is considered a high risk offender. Her convictions include carrying a loaded firearm in a public place, driving with a suspended license, attempt and conspiracy to commit a crime-drugs, multiple drug and narcotics offenses, forgery, child cruelty, shop lifting, grand theft auto, receiving stolen property, theft, failure to appear, DUI, burglary, battery, and felon/addict in possession of a firearm. Gonzalez has served multiple state prison terms the longest a three(3) year term for possession and use of controlled substances. Gonzalez was released from state prison to the supervision of the Los Angeles County Probation Department on October 3rd, 2013. Under the Governor's Public Safety Realignment Act of 2011, better known as Assembly Bill 109 (AB 109) the responsibility of lower-level offenders was shifted from the State to Los Angeles County. She subsequently failed to report to her probation officer and an arrest warrant was issued in November 2013 after she absconded from post release community supervision (PRCS). Gonzalez qualified to be released to the supervision of probation, under AB 109, because her current commitment offense for the charge of: possession of a firearm by a felon or addict is defined as non-serious and non-violent under the California penal code. Her prior criminal history, and current failure to comply with the terms of release make her a most wanted. If you know her whereabouts please contact...
